Slokes and the Latter Shoots.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]

MONTGOMERY (Ala.) July 28.—Editor
Patterson of the Argus, a colored paper here, was shot and killed shortly after noon today in the Columbus-street colored Baptist Church. A conference was in progress at the time, and the admission of Brown, a deposed pastor of the Dexter-avenue Baptist Church, was under discussion. Patterson opposed Brown's admission, and Slokes, pastor of the Columbus-street church, favored it. Hot words ensued.
Patterson struck Slokes in the face.
The report of a pistol was heard and Patterson fell dead. Several arrests have been made, and there is great excitement among the negroes.HISTORY REVISED.LONDON, July 28.—With reference to the reported seizure of Great Britain of Palmyra Island, Polynesia, it is officially stated that the island has been British since 1888. The report is supported by evidence from the fact that H. M. S. Wild Swan called there last May on her periodical visits to the HAWAII'S OWNERSHIP DISCRED-ITED.WASHINGTON, July 28.—State Department officials say that no new issue is presented by the seizure of Palmyra Island by the British, reported some days ago by an incoming vessel, for Great Britain has maintained a claim to the island for the past nine years. The island is said to be in the Polynesian group, and although Hawaii has asserted a claim to its possession, our government has not been strongly impressed with the validity of the claim. Meanwhile, the British, it is said, not only have asserted a claim to it, but have actually occupied the island for some years past.
In view of the probable annexation of Hawaii by the United States, the

He is on an Official Mission—Ja-

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:
"Official information of the action of the British government in taking possession of the island of Palmyra in the Pacific Ocean has been received at the State Department. It was embodied in a dispatch which reached the department yesterday from San Francisco, it having been wired from that point by the dispatch agent of the department yesterday. The message received from Mr. Sewall merely contained the bare facts of the seizure of the island.
"The action of Great Britain in taking possession of the island at this time, following, as it does, the submission of an annexation treaty to the Senate by the President, is considered very significant by the officials here.
Whether it is intended to complicate matters so as to stave off annexation, or whether Great Britain purposes to establish a naval station on the island in question, her action is regarded as of the highest importance, and future developments will be watched with keen interest by officials here. It is now the intention of the State Department officials to gather all the information possible in regard to Palmyra. Should their search strengthen Hawaii's right to the island, then it is proposed to send instructions to Minister Sewall directing him to urge the Dole authorities to protest to Great Britain against her action.
"The United States will, of course, uphold such a protest, and the officials believe that it will result in the removal of a British flag from the island, should it be necessary to carry out belonging to the Hawaiian group.
"So far as the officials have been able to learn up to the present time, Palmyra Island was occupied a good many years ago by a number of Hawaiian citizens, who raised the Hawaiian flag over the territory.
The island was first discovered by the famous British navigator, Capt. Cook, who afterward lost his life in the Hawaiian Islands. An American corporation known as the Phoenix Guano Company, located on the island some years ago, and the present in possession and removed therefrom all the guano deposits. When these deposits had been exhausted, the company abandoned the island, leaving the sheds and wharf standing. According to the Hawaiian government, Palmyra Island has never been surveyed, so its extent cannot be accurately estimated. It was known some time ago as American Island.
"Naval officers say Palmyra Island could easily be converted into a coaling station by Great Britain. The coaling station, the officials declare, has been anxious to obtain possession of a coaling station in the vicinity of Hawaii, and would have been glad some years ago to have been discovered by the British.
The officials declare that the British at Pearl Harbor had not the American government stood in the way. This and other facts which have come to the attention of the State Department officials and naval officials convince them that Great Britain is desirous of obtaining some point in the Pacific which could be used as a coaling station and a cable telegraph station.
"Nothing definite can be determined, however, until the authorities are in possession of more information than they now have. It is expected that the British minister's report, which will arrive in Washington tomorrow part of the week, will contain additional facts, and its receipt is being looked forward to with great interest.
An official of the Japanese legation in discussing the seizure of Palmyra is said to be ignorant of this act, and the British. It is rather an amusing thing to us on the whole. In one of our protests against the Hawaiian annexation treaty it was predicted that the greed of territorial acquisition would revive in the progress of the debate on the question. Our prediction has thus far come true in an entirely unexpected way. Of course, Japan has no interest in the proceeding, but may be impressed with the validity of the question of annexation of Great Britain with the sponsor and protector of Hawaii, the United States."

MARQUIS ITO INTERVIEWED.

Japan's Protest Designed to Call Attention to Her Interests.NEW YORK, July 28.—A dispatch to the Herald from Paris says if war should break out between the United States and Japan, it will be in spite of Marquis Ito, personally as well as politically."In the first place," said Marquis Ito, "I wish you would contradict a statement that I am here charged with an official mission to strongly protest in the name of my government against a usurpation fraught with peril to the interests of the world at large. The statement is inexact in every particular. Not only have I no official mission in Europe now—I never even had an official mission charged with such duties by the Japanese government since I have been in Paris, until today."I believe firmly that the Hawaiian

ORPHEUM—Vaudeville.

SPECIAL MINING NUMBER.

At an early date The Times will publish an elaborate, carefully prepared and informing issue devoted to exploiting the rich mining fields lying in the great Southwest, in almost every direction from the city of Los Angeles, which is the natural commercial metropolis and mineral entrepot of this vast region. The forthcoming Mining Edition will contain a volume of valuable and timely information about the yielding and paying mines, as well as about the more promising of the prospects in various mineral localities. The aim will be to give correct and reliable information in every case, with a view to promoting the mining industry as a legitimate pursuit. Further information about this timely publication may be obtained at the office, together with terms of advertising and prices of the paper in bulk.

A GOVERNMENT ARMOR PLANT.

A Washington dispatch states that the armor-producing companies have declined to furnish the Navy Department the armor needed for the three battleships now building, at the price fixed by Congress, which is $300 per ton. It is further stated that Secretary Long has taken the second step marked out by Congress, and has called upon the ship-building companies to submit proposals for procuring and fitting the armor. It is anticipated, however, that these companies will decline the proposal, in which event Secretary Long will appoint a board of officers, in accordance with the direction of Congress, to formulate a plan for the establishment of a government armor plant. This course of procedure appears to be eminently rational and sensible. For years we have had endless trouble over this vexing question of armor plate. Extremely high prices have been paid in many cases for an inferior product. There can be no question that the government has been defrauded on many of its contracts, and our warships have suffered in efficiency by reason of defective armor, while they have cost more than they ought. It is a question whether the whole system of naval construction by private contract ought not to be abolished, to be succeeded by the establishment of government works of sufficient capacity to turn out all the warships needed by the government, and to do all the repair work needed to keep the government ships in order. The plan has much to commend it, and no very strong arguments have been or can be advanced against it.

The establishment of a government armor plant would be somewhat expensive in the matter of first cost, but it would probably prove to be true economy in the end. Not only would a large saving undoubtedly be effected in the cost of armor plates, but all suspicion of defective plates would be removed; for if the government constructed its own armor plates the temptation to defective construction would no longer exist. The efficiency of our naval armament would thus be materially increased, while the cost to the government would be materially lessened. Under such circumstances it would be possible and practicable to increase our naval strength indefinitely at the minimum of cost. The accomplishment of such results is certainly desirable from any point of view. While our navy is far stronger than it was a few years ago, it has not yet been brought up to the high state of efficiency which the credit and the safety of the nation demand.

It is becoming more and more apparent that if we are to maintain our commanding position among the nations of the earth we must be prepared to defend our policies and enforce our authority on land and sea. A strong navy is the surest guaranty of peace with other nations, and such a navy is needed to defend our thousands of miles of unfortified seacoast. Any plan, therefore, by which the cost of naval construction can be materially reduced will commend itself as wise, and consequently as worthy of adoption by the government.

Those fellows who announce their intention of claiming the major portion of the Klondyke region by alleged right of discovery would be fabulously rich if their wealth were equal to their greed. The first thing we know the heirs, executors and assigns of Christopher Columbus and Amerigo Vesputius will be scrapping over the question of the ownership of the Western Hemisphere.

WANTED, A HALL.

The Chamber of Commerce has received a communication from the Executive Committee of the National Educational Convention, stating that the committee will visit Los Angeles in September, to investigate the accommodations afforded by this city for the meeting of the convention here. This city, with the surrounding suburbs, between the foothills and the ocean, can easily furnish sleeping and eating facilities for 40,000 visitors, but when it comes to the question of a meeting-place for a big convention, we find that the largest hall in the city will only accommodate 4000. The Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to confer with the other commercial bodies in regard to this question. It is desired, if possible, to enlarge Hazard's Pavilion. If this cannot be done, a new hall should be built. A good site would be the old Tenth-street hotel property. In any case, Los Angeles, which is rapidly obtaining a reputation as a convention city, must have a commodious hall, large enough to accommodate at least 10,000 people.

The marplot agitators who are jawing in the mining regions for revenue only—the Debses, and the Gomperses and the Hatchfords—are likely to destroy all chance for a settlement of the existing difficulty between the coal miners and the operators, more's the pity. If those walking delegates would keep their noses out of something that does not concern them, the contending interests might meet upon a compromise, but it is very doubtful if the mine owners will listen to the dictation and blather of such a jail-bird as Eugene V. Debs, and they would hardly be human if they did. As has been previously remarked in these columns, the walking delegate's bread and butter depends upon his keeping things unsettled, therefore any reasonable scheme of adjustment is something he will not be a party to if he knows himself, so the prospect for a speedy settlement of the existing deplorable conditions appears extremely remote. If the agitators could be stricken with an attack of lock-jaw, simultaneously, it would be a great thing for the miners and the country at large. As for the men who actually work in the mines, they certainly have the sympathy of everybody, but as for the schemers who work only their jaws, there is, among thinking people, nothing but the most supreme contempt.

Andy W. Francisco, the little giant of Ohio and California journalism, although of late "not working at it," has been appointed by the President to the responsible office of Collector of Customs for the port of Los Angeles—a selection that will meet with the approval of everybody who appreciates integrity, uprightness, courtesy and ability in his fellow-man. Mr. Francisco has served the public in the office of County Supervisor, but is best known as an old-time newspaper man of wide experience. He will bring to the position of Collector of the Port a knowledge of affairs achieved after long years in the harness of business, and will, it may be guaranteed, make an ideal official. Both the customs service and the appointee are to be congratulated upon President McKinley's selection.

Riverside is going to celebrate the passage of the new Tariff Bill next week with a jubilee day, at which time the delighted residents of the orange region will lift up the horn of their rejoicing. The new rate on citrus fruits is a great thing for all California, but particularly that section of it in which orange and lemon-growing is the staple industry, and for that reason a celebration of the tariff rate is entirely fitting. It promises to be a big event, with all the details carried out in that handsome way for which Riverside and its prosperous and enterprising citizens are famous.

The Secretary of War seems to be in trouble because there is no law that exactly fits the case of the establishment of a military post in Alaska. The country will be considerably surprised to learn that Mr. Alger cares whether there is any statute governing in this matter or not, as he has shown in the past that if a law did not happen to suit him, he would ignore it any way; so there would seem to be no reason why he should not go right ahead and run things to suit himself, and let Congress lump it if it doesn't like it.

A horde of noisy agitators, including Debs, the disreputable, have invaded the mining districts of West Virginia. Their mission is to induce the coal miners who are there at work to quit their employment. These West Virginia miners have no grievance against their employers. They have steady work at satisfactory wages. It is greatly to their credit that they have thus far refused to quit work at the behest of the vagabond agitators and "organizers," whose jaws are mainly responsible for all the trouble.

The eyes of the world are again directed toward the kingdom—or rather Ahkondoom—of Swat. An Associated Press, dispatch from London, published in yesterday's Times, states that the people of Swat Valley have been for some time quite peaceful, but now the Swatse have risen against British rule as one man. Strange to say, nothing is said in the dispatch about our old friend, the Ahkondoom.

Some of our esteemed contemporaries are finding fault with young Logan, the son of his father, who goes around with his trousers rolled up, English fashion, leading a bull pup by a golden chain. They seem to forget that nature has provided that there must be one fool in every family.

It is gratifying to know that our High School is one of the few up-grade institutions in the State that is not deficient in English. A school that teaches good, straight English is all right—would that many of our knowledge factories did not try to teach so many other things.

Mr. Bryan makes the mistake of riding an issue of the model of 1896, when the style is already obsolete, and which, by the year 1900, promises to be but a ghastly recollection of a machine that was made of poor materials and was badly put together.

Los Angeles is probably a city of more fire alarms and fewer fires of sufficient size to draw a big audience than any city of its size in the United States. The Times is not complaining of this, but only mentioning it as a matter of curiosity.

An American having won the tennis championship at Boston over an English opponent, we feel constrained to inquire if there is really any game except tennis, sculling and yachting that our cousins across the pond play so indifferently?

The San Francisco school department is undergoing an upheaval. When we consider that Mrs. Craven was a teacher in that department until three or four days ago it certainly seems time for an upheaval that shall break the record.

Debs has been instrumental in causing thousands of men to quit work; but if he ever was instrumental in securing honest employment for even one workingman, the fact is not of record.

Since Japan whipped China that country reminds one of what Blaine said of Conkling, which leads us to suggest that if let alone it will proceed to strut itself to death.

An Alabama reverend killed his man at Montgomery yesterday. The fighting preacher is still on the warpath, and able to pull a trigger.

It is about time for Secretary Sherman to send Japan one of those sort of letters that Lord Salisbury found so intensely disagreeable.

When the Texas man pulls a gun he shoots to kill, as was effectually established in the city of Waco yesterday forenoon.

President McKinley has taken to the woods, but, unlike his predecessor, he seems to be unsupplied with either kind of bait.

Klondyke, which was never heard of until a few days ago, is just now the biggest spot on the map.

Mr. Bryan is still keeping his opinion of the gold strike on the Klondyke resolutely to himself.

They don't speak of it on the Yukon as having money to burn, but as money to freeze.

So long as Mr. Arkell claims Klondyke, why doesn't he go out and take his property?

Miles Long appears to be several miles short of a job on the police force.

And now the wave of prosperity has struck Andy Francisco.

BLAZE IN A BARN.

A Night Watchman's Carelessness With a Lamp.

Policeman Fay turned in an alarm from box No. 38, at the corner of First and Wilmington streets this morning shortly after midnight. The nightman at John O. Lafferty's livery and feed stable at No. 125 San Pedro street, took a lamp into the office and placed it in the desk, preparatory to writing a letter. A file of bills hanging above the lamp caught fire and the room was soon in a blaze. The nightman picked up the file of papers and the lamp and threw them into the street, where the lamp exploded. He then proceeded to put out the fire with a few buckets of water and succeeded in doing so before the arrival of the fire department. The loss was nominal.

KARNIVAL OF KOMMERCE.

The Carnival of Commerce closed its existence most successfully last night. The first prize was awarded to the South Pasadena Ostrich Farm, the second prize to the Times, which was represented in a tableau by Miss L. V. Atwood, Miss Edna Fraser and Mrs. R. C. Jordan and the third prize to the Buffalo Woolen Company, which was represented by Mrs. T. E. Rowan, Jr., as the Yellow Kid.

Dr. Porter Mixed Doses. KANSAS CITY (Mo.), July 28.—Dr. J. D. He was found in a dying condition in the rear of his place of business.

DIRECTORS MEET.

CHAUTAUQUANS INTRODUCE RECOMMENDATIONS.

Reading Circles to Be Organized and Fewer Classes With Better Attendance to Be Encouraged.

PROF. L. D. SYLE ON ALASKA.

TELLS OF THE FAULTY GOVERNMENT OF THE COUNTRY.

The Federal Laws of the United States are the Only Ones in Effect, and These are Constantly Violated.

The annual Chautauqua Assembly at Long Beach is nearing its close, and with this fact confronting them, the directors are preparing to combat, in the next meeting, the many irregularities which have to some extent marred the meeting still in session. A committee of two, appointed by the newly elected board of directors, reported yesterday at the board meeting as follows: "We, the undersigned committee, appointed to outline plans and methods for the coming Chautauqua year, beg leave to report: "First, that during the coming year we will individually interest ourselves where we live in organizing Chautauqua reading circles and popularize this department of our work to the utmost of our ability, knowing as we do that Chautauqua here depends largely upon our students and graduates for success.

"Second—We suggest that public Chautauqua meetings be held in Redlands, San Bernardino, Riverside, Ontario, Santa Ana, Pomona, Long Beach, Long Beach, Anaheim, and places in Southern California, looking to the upbuilding of our Long Beach Chautauqua.

"Third—We suggest that the teachers of our summer school shall have the first afternoon (2:30 to 5 p.m.) of the first day of our Chautauqua Assembly to lay before all who may come their plans of teaching, and solicit pupils.

"Fourth—We suggest that not later than April 1, all of our Southern California cities and towns have brought to their notice facts, outlines and plans for our coming Chautauqua in a neatly-printed circular to be scattered by the thousands.

"Fifth—We suggest that the president and secretary and one other member, who shall be elected by this board, be authorized to attend and appear in all press work for the Chautauqua year.

"Sixth—We suggest that headquarters shall be provided for the board at the Long Beach Chautauqua, and a fixed hour named for regular directors' meetings.

"Seventh—We suggest that an executive committee be elected, which shall enforce all the acts and provisions of this board during our assembly and summer school, and shall attend to all other matters not provided for by said board. The said officer shall report to this board at his earliest convenience, all transactions herein specified.

"E. P. DORLAND, "Committee."

The report was approved by the directors, and the action recommended will be taken immediately. Prof. Charles W. Seymour, who was announced to give a historical lecture on "The Discovery of Alaska," and Prof. L. D. Sytle of the University of California took his place, giving an extemporaneous talk on Alaska, the new El Dorado. Mr. Sytle returned from a trip to Alaska only six weeks ago, just before the reported rich discoveries of the yellow metal, but he was not at all disappointed. He reported of fabulous amounts made by the miners had not yet become current. "Alaska," he said, "is three times the size of the State of California, and ten times the size of Ohio. It was named by Uroloch, a Russian, in honor of Russia as a favor to the Russians in appreciation of their conduct toward the Americans during the war. The discovery of gold in Alaska is a real treasure trove. The gold is repaid through the findings of gold dust, and the sealing, fishing and lumber industries.

"The discovery of a trip to Alaska is the fact that the traveler need fear no sea sickness, as the voyage is nearly entirely through landlocked waters, and, consequently, a quiet one. The natives are essentially thieves and murderers. It is only ten years since the country was a virgin forest, although Metakalpa, a chief of the church far superior to the tabernacle of this place. "Juneau is a queer place. It is located on a steep, rocky hill, and is a rather amusing result of the interview between the Japanese and the reporter was the impression received by a Chinese who stood near and overheard a conversation between them. As the reporter turned away from the corner where he was standing, he heard him and said: 'Japs going to fight, eh?' "Going to fight who?" was asked. "Why, fight white man over here. You sabbe. War, allee same like Japan and China." "Yes, maybe they will fight. Why?" "Hope so. Chinaman like to see fight. Chinaman get licked once, like to see another fight." "But why? What would the Chinese do if Japan and this country got into a war? As you say the Japs whipped the Chinese, but your people made a treaty with Japan, and are now their allies. Your people would be likely to help Japan in case of war."

"You think so," said the Chinaman. "I think not much. No real good when war comes. Germany and France had treaty. Huh, what good. Japan fight the United States, China get back over circle was bent. ## ALL ALONG THE LINE.

San Diego does not propose to be behind Riverside in the matter of celebrating the tariff victory. A citrus-fruit growers' picnic is on the tapis, at which the cent-a-pound tariff will be duly ratified by the denizens of the bay region.

Riverside's municipal electric light and power plant promises to be not only self-supporting in the near future, but will, it is thought, prove a source of revenue to the city. Los Angeles and other Southern California cities might profit by Riverside's example.

The proposed balloon expedition from San Diego to the Klondike gold fields was probably suggested by the abundance of inflating material at the Silver Gate. San Diego has always had an abundance of gas of a highly buoyant, not to say flamboyant, character.

The Southern California Power Company has made a contract for the construction of canals and tunnels for which it is to pay $100,000. The major portion of this tidy sum will be distributed in payment for labor. The unemployed grow beautifully less every day.

Another Chinese lottery case miscarried yesterday owing to the obstinacy, to say nothing worse, of two jurors, although a plain case was made out against the Chinese gamblers. Inasmuch as Justice Owens commented with all possible severity on the conduct of the two jurors, he deprived others of a pleasant task.

A Los Angeles man was arrested and imprisoned at the instance of officious neighbors, for giving his young son, who had grossly insulted the mother, a well-deserved thrashing. If American parents would make a more early and judicious use of the rod, where milder means of suasion have failed, we should have less hoodlums and criminals and less need of reform schools.

Some of the residents of Sierra Madre and Lamanda Park aver that in the revised edition of the Bible the statement that "the rain falleth alike upon the just and upon the unjust," should be changed by the elimination of the word "unjust." And the cause for such a change is simply that quite a shower of rain visited these sections about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, whereas Pasadena and other nearby towns and cities were not so blessed. It requires a very little rain to make some people think they are of the chosen few.

TWO JURORS REBUKED.

JUSTICE OWENS SAID THEY WERE DISHONEST IN HEART.

J. J. Smith and W. B. Wise Vote for Ah Gee's Acquittal on a Charge of Selling Lottery Tickets—Clear Case of Guilt.

Another Chinese lottery case has been tried and resulted in no conviction. In the case against Ah Gee, tried before Justice Owens yesterday, the evidence was so conclusive of the Mongolians' guilt that it seemed incredible to the court that men of common sense could return any other verdict than one of conviction. Ah Gee kept a lottery joint at No. 250 East First street. After considerable maneuvering to gain the Celestial's confidence, a coup was planned by four officers on July 8. Special Officers Rosso and Murray were given marked coins and sent out to purchase lottery tickets at Ah Gee's place of business.

When they arrived at their destination Ah Gee was the only Chinese in the room where the tickets were sold. When they entered he locked the door behind them. They marked six tickets and paid for them with the marked money. Officers Fowler and Sparks then came to the door and Ah Lee unlocked it in response to their summons.

Fowler took the tickets Rosso and Murray had marked from the Mongolian's pocket, and all four officers then placed the tickets, the place and time on the tickets. Ah Gee was taken to the Police station by Sparks and Fowler and turned over to Sergeant Smith, who searched the prisoner and found the marked coins in his pocket.

At the trial yesterday all four of the officers who planned Ah Gee's arrest told the same story, and positively identified the Chinese, Ah Gee, the tickets, money, and every other detail of the transaction. There was not a particle of variation in their testimony. The only evidence introduced by the defense which had a direct bearing on the case was the testimony of Ah Gee himself.

Ah Gee admitted that the marked money had been taken from him, but swore that Rosso and Murray had come into his place to get the money changed. The Celestial denied that he had sold any lottery tickets to anyone. The jury went out at 2:10 yesterday afternoon, and were finally called in by Justice Owens at 11:45 last night.

When the court found that the ballots of the jury had stood ten to two for conviction, he was very indignant. For ten minutes the magistrate administered as scathing a rebuke to the two men who comprised the minority as it was possible for him to do. He summed his remarks up by saying that the men who hung the jury were dishonest in heart and never should go into a court to get justice. The two jurors who voted for the acquittal of the Chinese were J. J. Smith, a coal dealer, and W. B. Wise, a klazier in Matthews' paint store. The other jurors, who were very indignant over the matter, said that Smith and Wise gave no reason for voting as they did and that one of them declared that he would hang out for acquittal if he were necessary. Another man named G. A. Smith served on the jury, and was greatly alarmed lest his name should be confused with that of J. J. Smith, one of the two who voted in Ah Gee's favor.

The officers said that they will not let his defeat discourage them, but will continue to give evidence against the Mongolian law-breakers, and land them in jail.

Society.

The farewell reception given Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Thomson at Unity Church last evening was attended by a large gathering of the church people. Messrs. J. R. Newberry, W. A. Harris and M. M. Gillespie assisted in receiving. The auditorium was effectively decorated, red geraniums, dahlias and pepper sprays being used about the platform, and roses, papyrus and vines forming a pretty background for the receiving party. Hydrangeas, roses and other flowers were arranged about the church. An enjoyable programme was rendered, consisting of a piano solo by Miss Edith Haines, vocal solos by Mrs. Cella Fischer and Miss Rosina Rosin, concert solo by Miss Madeline Loebe, and a song by Mr. Quinlan. Both Miss Rosin and Mr. Quinlan were warmly endorsed. Ices and cakes were served at tete-a-tete tables, presided over by Meses. Hopperstead, Seamans, McCullough and O. E. Day, assisted by the Misses Anna Day, Charles Waldron, Cora Seaman and the young ladies of the church. Shortly before the close of the reception, Mr. Newberry read a request from members of the church to the board of trustees to call a special meeting August 5, at 7:30 p.m., in the church, to ask the trustees for a statement of the church's financial condition for the reason of the pastor's resignation and for a discussion of the advisability of accepting it. The request was signed by about fifty members.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard J. Batchelder entertained a few musical friends informally on Monday evening at No. 1050 West Twenty-fourth street. Piano solos were rendered by Miss Blanche Rogers, Miss Edith Haines and Mrs. Batchelder, vocal solos by D. H. Morrison, J. H. Zinck, Mr. Batchelder, Miss Rose Broderick of San Francisco and Miss Madge Rogers. A Dutch supper was served after the programme.

The guests, in addition to those already mentioned, were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Mrs. Zinck, C. S. Walton, and Dr. H. M. Bishop.

About thirty-five members of Mrs. Kate Tupper Galpin's current-events class were present at the very interesting meeting held yesterday morning in the Friday Morning Club rooms. Klondike was the first topic of conversation, the gambling laws of Monte Carlo followed, leading naturally to Leopold II's gambling ventures. The present situation at the great mining strike and other general news of the day was discussed, and then the conversation branched to the successful writers of the United States, among whom were mentioned Mrs. Madeline Lucette Riley, the playwright, Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett and Mark Twain. Dr. Milla Lund, a countrywoman of Explorer Andree, gave an interesting sketch of his life, his work and the construction of his famous balloon. Mrs. Lou Wheat, who has recently returned from Japan, gave an account of Masakaki, the great Japanese artist and his work, which brought out the fact that his famous carved portrait of himself was exhibited in this city three years ago and now adorned a San Francisco saloon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith of Pavilion Place gave a dinner Tuesday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Marsales, Miss Ada Stein, Messrs. L. H. Miller, O. R. Robinson, All Stein, Howard Thomas, Master Frank and Miss Ethel Marsales, and Dun Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Marsales rendered some very enjoyable music.

PASADENA EVENTS.
Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Annie L. Brush of Pasadena and Robert N. Carter of San Bernardino, the event to take place next Wednesday evening at the residence of the young lady's mother, Mrs. David L. Brush, on Kensington drive.

The Misses Eliza of South Madison avenue entertained a number of friends Wednesday afternoon and evening in honor of Miss Anna Z. Ross of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who was elegantly escorted in flowers, which hydrangeas, roses and carnations formed the principal flowers, while smilax was festooned from the chandeliers and pillars. Amusements, furnished considerable amusement, and a very dainty luncheon was subsequently partaken of.
A quiet, but in every other respect a very elaborate, wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride, on South Orange Grove avenue. The contracting parties were Mary Louise Adams, who has been a resident of Pasadena some months, and S. C. Pardee of San Francisco. Rev. J. J. Chichester of Emmanuel Church, Los Angeles, officiated. The wedding supper was an elegant affair. The decorations were of roses and maiden hair ferns, while the tables for the wedding supper were heavily laden with rich candelabra, and surrounding the entire tables were mirrors about a foot in width. The newly-wedded couple left for San Francisco, and before returning will have made an extended tour.

ABOUT EGGS...

There is both commendable frankness and business-like reticence in the grocer's sign which reads: "Fresh Eggs, 15c doz; Good Eggs, 12c doz; Eggs, 8c dozen." There are just as many kinds of dentistry as there are of eggs good and bad—and it is just as difficult to find any points to admire in dental work that is not the best as in eggs that are not all that eggs should be. Painless dentistry, moderate charges, warranted work, get the best.

PASADENA.

PROPOSED RAID ON UNTAGGED DOGS AND TAG THIEVES.

Contractor Roscum Still Missing With His Borrowed Team—Proposed Joint Reservoir—Military Affairs—Notes and Personal.

PASADENA, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] City Marshal Lacey determined to put a stop to the unusual number of license tags in this city. Of late hardly a day passes but what a complaint is registered to the effect that some pet dog has returned home minus the star which was hanging from its collar. As a result of all this, a list of all licensed dogs is kept at the office of the Marshal, as well as a pretty complete list of owners of unlicensed dogs. An officer will within a few days visit the owners of the unlicensed dogs and inspect their collars, with a view to discovering, if possible, where some of the tags have gone. This officer will also make collections from the owners for a license, or will take their pets to the pound where, after the customary ten days' incarceration, the animals will be killed. All owners of licensed dogs whose tags have been lost or stolen will, upon presentation of their license receipt to the City Clerk, be given a new tag, that the dog-catcher may not in his zeal take to the pound any dogs whose owners have paid the license. The new officer will start out next Monday on his tour of inspection, and the pound in the mean time is being made ready for the reception of a large number of four-footed guests.

ROSCUM STILL AT LARGE.

Roscum, the erstwhile cement contractor who disappeared about a week ago with a team belonging to Wiley & Greely, is still in possession of the team, and every mail brings in to the firm letters from people in all sections of Southern California who are positive that the two-hoofed covered waggon is the one they saw pass their respective places. It would require the united efforts of all the members of a metropolitan police force to visit all the places from which letters are being received. It now turns out upon investigation that this is an old trick of Roscum's, who seems to look upon the capture of horses and wagons as a practical joke, for while a resident of Kansas he hired an outfit and did not return it within the time he stated to the liveryman that he would. A few days after, Roscum, tiring of the rig, notified the liveryman that his outfit was at a certain stable and if he wanted it he could call for it and get it. He was, however, considerate enough to telegraph the news of the location of the team, instead of writing. Mr. Wiley, who has been searching for the man and missing team for two days past, returned this evening after looking into many clues without any tangible evidence of the whereabouts of Roscum.

MILITARY AFFAIRS.

The officers of Co. I of the Seventh Regiment, N.G.C., are very anxious to have a large turnout of the members of the company at the annual encampment at Santa Monica August 4 to 14, but owing to a large number of members being employed in the stores and the unwillingness of the storekeepers to allow their employees to be absent, even though they are willing to lose their pay, makes it manifest that Pasadena will be represented by anything but the usual quota.

JOINT RESERVOIR.

The executive committee of the two water companies will meet on Tuesday afternoon for an outing, even if they do not come to an understanding as to the location of a proposed large reservoir just north of the La Cañada bridge. It is the intention of the two companies to combine in making a reservoir sufficiently large to store the waters of spring so that there may be less scarcity during the summer months. The forest fire of a year ago have caused a scarcity, and water takers are confined to two hours each evening for the use of their water. It is to be prepared for similar emergencies in the future that the two water companies are considering the construction of a huge reservoir, the storage of water until the summer season. One item which will be specially considered on the trip Saturday will be the approximate expense of such a reservoir as is desired.

PASADENA BREVITIES.

The committee having in charge the concert for the benefit of the fund to erect a parsonage at Lancaster Park, for the pastor of the church there, has provided a programme which should draw a large house, apart from the worthlessness of the Tabernacle on Thursday evening. The artists include the Madrigal Quartette, Miss L. M. Forest, harpist; Miss Alice Coleman, pianist; Miss Jessie York, reader; Arthur A. Dodworth, violinist; the Tabernacle Quartette, Messrs. Smith and Parker, and Messrs. McLachlan and Clapp; and Miss Glennie S. Pearl, reader.

At the monthly meeting of the Pickwick Club on last Tuesday evening the Membership Committee will be called upon to act upon the applications for membership of several well-known Pasadenaans. Since the announcement that the club is soon to move into new quarters the interest of members has largely increased. On Tuesday evening a very interesting game of duplicate whist was played between H. R. Hertel and D. St. John against W. W. Benedict and G. A. Herdick, the former, however, winning by seven points.

Work is so rapidly progressing on the Linda Vista bridge over the arroyo, that it will be open to the public again early next week. Superintendent of Streets Buchanan spent most of the afternoon inspecting the repairs, and is satisfied with the manner in which the work is being done by the contractors.

Many Pasadena merchants were seen this morning wearing light overcoats, rather an unusual sight for July—still they did not look uncomfortable. By noon, however, an overcoat was nothing short of a burden.

SAN DIEGO, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] A notable event in Masonic circles took place Tuesday evening, when the degree of Master Mason was conferred upon United States Minister to Peru, Irving B. Dudley, who leaves on Thursday afternoon for his new post. Under a special dispensation granted by the Grand Master of the State, Judge Dudley was elected and received the three degrees within the space of twenty-seven hours. The dispensation granted in this case is rarely issued. At the conclusion of the third degree Tuesday evening, those present enjoyed an elegant banquet by invitation of Minister Dudley, Worcester, who was acting as toast-master. Several toasts were responded to in a happy vein, congratulating Mr. Dudley upon his advancement into the Occidental Order. Mr. Newman has been assisting in C. C. Newman's drug store. They are having two sledges built at Bates Bros. Each of these sledges can be extended from a width of 7 inches to 2 feet. It is proposed to place one behind the other and couple them together.

Dr. Ord, who came here some fifty years ago as United States Army surgeon, late of Pacific Grove, is here on a visit, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Capt. Pershing, who is the wife of Capt. Pershing, U.S.A., at present military attaché of the American Legation at Rome, Italy. Dr. Ord, while in Santa Barbara, is now arranging to sink a De la Guerra family, and claims the honor of having been first to read the Declaration of Independence in Santa Barbara. PUBLIC OWNERSHIP OF ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER.

The City's Electric Plant is Almost Self-supporting—Mrs. Long on Trial for Perjury—Notes.

RIVERSIDE, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] The Riverside applications received by the City Council on Tuesday from business men for electric motive power call attention to the fact that this city has one of the most complete, as well as one of the most economically conducted municipal plants in the country.

The Southern California Electric Light and Power Company, with headquarters at Redlands, delivers electricity to the Riverside plant at a rate of 10 cents per kilowatt-hour. The city has a total of 200 horse-power, at the gates of the city. Said electricity is continuously on tap, night and day. This costs Riverside $600 a month, and costs about $500 additional a month to operate the plant, which includes—in round numbers—35 arc lights and 2800 incandescent lights, which the city uses for its arc lights and 100 incandescent lights for street lighting purposes, and another 100 incandescent lights for illuminating the public buildings. The rest of the incandescent lights and some few horse power of the "juice" are supplied to such of the populace as desire the same, for business and domestic use, and the revenue thus accruing, in this the driest season of the year, falls less than $300 short per month of the total operating expenses. It is confidently expected that by January 15, 1898, the city's electric plant will be self-sustaining.

LONG PERJURY TRIAL.

Mrs. S. C. Long was on trial Wednesday before Justice Chambers on the charge of perjury, which she is alleged to have committed while testifying in the case of J. H. Beggs, charged with the murder of Charles R. Gray, Esq., prosecuted and Charles R. Gray, Esq., looked on by the jury as the defendant. Mrs. Long's testimony in the Beggs case went to show that Officers Mancock and Dickson had tried to induce her to testify against Beggs at the preliminary examination. Today these officers swore to the contrary, and denied that any attempt had been made to influence the defendant in which they were corroborated by Dr. Perry, who said that he was present and heard the conversation between the officers and Mrs. Long. The case was taken under advisement.

RIVERSIDE BREVITIES.

In connection with the tariff celebration next Tuesday night, it should be understood that invitations are not being sent to residents of Riverside. It is a town affair, and every citizen is expected to invite himself, pungle up $3 at the Glenwood or at one of the other places, to the reception and banquet, and in addition contribute his personal presence and enthusiasm to the general hilarity. The proceeds of the sale of tickets will be devoted to fireworks, bands, etc., and the remaining third will pay for the banquet.

THE HORTICULTURAL COMMISSION.

The Horticultural Commission has run up against a snag in the person of an orange grower of the valley who refuses to have his trees fumigated for red scale or any other kind of insect. This will afford opportunity to test the law covering the case. Officer Burrell went to Moreno on Wednesday to arrest one John Doe Bandy, against whom a warrant was sworn out in Justice Chambers' court. The charge is battery, and Ah Wing is the complainant.

CONDUCTOR J. A. DARY OF THE MOTOR LINE.

Conductor J. A. Dary of the motor line, left Wednesday on a three-weeks' vacation trip to San Francisco and other northern points. Frank A. Miller and E. P. Clarke were in Los Angeles Wednesday on business connected with the tariff celebration.

L. M. ALLUM LEFT WEDNESDAY FOR BARSTOW.

L. M. Allum left Wednesday for Barstow, where he has accepted a position on the Santa Fé road. Horace McPhee has sold his cottage on North street to H. E. Andrews. The price was $1800.

POSTMASTER ABBOTT MOVED INTO HIS HANDSOME NEW RESIDENCE ON FOURTEENTH STREET WEDNESDAY.

A buxom boy arrived Tuesday night in the family of Henry Starr, driver of horse car No. 1. J. Henry Vinton of Easton, Ind., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collier.

HENRY COONS, AN OLD MINER, EXPECTS TO LEAVE FOR ALASKA SOON. HE HAS BEEN THERE BEFORE.

A SON WAS BORN TUESDAY TO THE WIFE OF A. N. WHEELLOCK.

Dr. D. L. Myers of Moreno was in town Wednesday. The Christian Endeavors continue to come and go. T. Titus is enjoying an outing at Squirrel Inn.

City Briefs.

Parties going to Catalina can leave this city on the Terminal newspaper train at 6 a. m., connecting with the Wilmington Transportation Company's newspaper boat at San Pedro, and arrive at Catalina at 10 o'clock daily except Saturday and Sunday. Making the trip at this time of the day is much more delightful than in the afternoon, after the winds have come up and the ocean is "choppy." There is also much less liability to seasickness on the morning trip.

OLD SOL ECLIPSED.

The Second Annual Eclipse of the Sun.

At 5:22 o'clock this morning the sun will go into annular eclipse, reappearing in full at 7:23, after just two hours of partial darkness. The eclipse, which will in every way be very similar to that which occurred on February 1 last, will prove of no special value except as a verification of astronomical prediction. The annular shape of the eclipse cannot be observed from this city, and the appearance will be one of a partial eclipse only, although in the Antilles and Cuba, the ring-like form can be distinctly seen on the face of the sun.

POMONA.

Old Baldy Has Its Own Mining Boom Just Now.

POMONA, July 28.—[Regular Correspondence.] Since Messrs. Slanker and Grable made the rich strike of gold on Mt. San Antonio and bonded it to Peter Fleming for $20,000, there has been considerable excitement on the mountain, and report has it that a number of claims in that vicinity have been filed on, while a number of prospectors are still searching the ground. Mr. Smith of the firm of Nolan & Smith, Los Angeles, has now brought suit against the owners of the property to compel them to sell the mine to him for $20,000. They allege that the only claim Mr. Smith has is a promise that the owners would sell him the mine for $20,000, providing Mr. Fleming would release them from the bond, but that Mr. Fleming refused to release them and they failed to proceed to sell the mine to Mr. Smith. This litigation is taken as further evidence of the richness of the mine.

Wanted a Steamboat.

Representatives of one of the parties being organized here to go to the Alaska gold fields yesterday made overtures to the Wilmington Transportation Company to obtain a charter of the steamer Hermosa for a voyage from San Pedro to Juneau. The steamboat company declined to charter the vessel on the terms proposed, and the gold-hunters expressed their intention of consolidating all the Alaska-bound parties for the purpose of purchasing her outright. One hundred thousand dollars is set as the purchase price, and it is thought this sum can be raised without difficulty, the idea being to sell the steamer at the end of the voyage.

Sunk at Sea.

BOSTON, July 28.—The British steamer Scandinavia from Liverpool reports running down and sinking the barkentine Florence while in a dense fog twenty miles south of Cape Race last Saturday. The captain's wife and four of the crew of the Florence were lost. The Florence was bound from Sydney to St. John's, N. F.

MORE OF M'UTCHEON.

TELEGRAM FROM CHICAGO'S CHIEF OF DETECTIVES.

The Victims of His Frantic Operation. Though Anxious to See Him Punished, are Unwilling to Stand the Expenses.

A local paper recently printed an account of an attempt by two strangers, to rob Mrs. John A. Adams at No. 2204 West Fourth street. The story presented a picture of two bold, bad robbers lying in wait for the lady in the hope and expectation of relieving her of large quantities of diamonds and other precious stones. She is introduced to the reader as the wife of John A. Adams of the Adams Fruit Company, First and Spring streets.

The tale, though fairly well told, had its weak spots, and here are some of them: In the first place, no well-regulated robber would lie in wait or hold up as plain a looking person as she who travels under the name of Mrs. Adams, for that personage bears none of the outward semblance of affluence, and confesses to the outwardly but one piece of jewelry—a plain gold wedding ring. In the second place, the alleged Mrs. Adams is not Mrs. Adams at all, nor has the Adams Fruit Company ever done business in this city at any place nearer than three blocks from the point designated.

The woman is the supposed wife of John A. McCutcheon, until recently one of the partners in the Adams Fruit Company, doing business at the corner of Fourth and Spring streets. Prior to January 16 she was McCutcheon's book-keeper at No. 222 South Water street, Chicago. For about four years previous to this date McCutcheon lived at No. 18 Walton Place, Chicago, with a woman whom he had married at the home of his father, George McCutcheon, a grocer of Springfield, Ill. This woman's maiden name was Lorna Linger, and her curiosity to ascertain the facts about the simultaneous disappearance of her husband and his good-looking book-keeper a few months ago caused the Chicago daily papers to take up and exploit the case at the time.

McCutcheon had conducted a commission business in Chicago up to the time of his sudden leave-taking, and his immediate embarkation in similar fashion, arriving at Los Angeles a short time afterward showed that the commission habit was strong upon him. This fact, coupled with the report of the attempted robbery of his alleged wife, made it easy for the officers to locate him. Questioned as to the footpad practice on his wife by Los Angeles road agents, McCutcheon was talkative as an old maid at a tea party, but when his interviewers became inquisitive as to the circumstances of his mysterious departure from Chicago and desertion of his real wife, he closed up like a clam, and refused to talk. Neither himself nor his female companion was much in quest of local notoriety as they were when they sprung the fake robbery story. Indeed, as soon as they found that the police and assistant city officers they told fearful tales of domestic misfortune, denied all the Chicago stories of fraud and desertion, and secured temporary immunity from publicity.

The detective department, however, has been investigating the case of the McCutcheons, and it has been ascertained that the first reports from Chicago supplied only a drop in the bucket to the volume of fraud perpetrated in social and business circles by the runaway pair. A telegram received in this city yesterday from Horace M. Elliott, Chicago's chief of detectives, states that though McCutcheon is beyond a doubt guilty of numerous crimes committed in the Garden City, no one of his victims has yet volunteered to pay the expense of taking him back for trial. While it would be a satisfaction to see justice meted out to the man who deserted his wife and defrauded his friends, the price which it would be necessary to pay for this satisfaction is pretty high, especially as it would be impossible for the victims to recover their losses.

McCutcheon has recently withdrawn from the local fruit commission business, and the police are not informed as to his present whereabouts.

BOUND FOR KLONDYKE.

One Man Sells All He Has to Get Away.

One of the worst cases of gold fever yet on record is that of Frank Chenoweth, the grading contractor, who left last Saturday for the gold fields. Chenoweth wasted no time in preparation, but simply picked up and went, leaving his wife to dispose of his grading outfit as best she could.

Others who are said to be making active preparations to leave are James Hale, the merchant, and Charles Stillson. About 150 or 200 people a day are making inquiries at the office of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company about transportation. Efforts are being made to charter vessels for the voyage north.

Rumors are thick concerning the formation of companies here in Los Angeles, to send prospectors to the gold fields, but so far few have materialized into any definite plan. A quiet exodus of working men is going on all the time, but the real rush from Los Angeles has not yet begun.

Sleep

Induced by the use of coca, opiate or narcotic compounds is bad, decidedly bad. They undermine health and shatter the constitution and the patient is steadily growing into a worse condition—often resulting in the terrible slavery and misery of the cocaine and opium habit. Sleep induced by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla does not perhaps come as quickly, but it comes more surely and more permanently through nature's great restoring and rejuvenating channel—purified, vitalized and enriched blood. This feeds the nerves with life-giving energy and builds up the system and constitution from the very foundation of all health and life—the blood—pure, rich, red blood.

A BULLET IN THE BACK.

Young Will McArthur Fires Three Shots at His Sister's Lover.

Charles Flood, aged 18, is lying in bed at his home, No. 63 College street, with a 38-caliber bullet in the small of his back. He was shot last Friday night by William McArthur, a youth about his own age, who accuses him of having had improper relations with his sister, Maude McArthur.

Young Flood and Maude have been good friends for a long time, but for some reason the girl's parents objected to his attentions to their daughter. Friday afternoon McArthur followed his sister to the house and made an assault upon the latter, beating him over the head with a pistol and threatening to kill him then and there. The weapon was snapped several times in Flood's face, but the cartridges failed to explode.

Recovering from the first attack, Flood fled from the house pursued by his assailant, who fired three shots at the fugitive as he was scaling a back fence. One of the shots took effect in the young man's back and the other two failed.

Repeated attempts to locate the bullet have failed, and the physicians consider Flood's condition critical. McArthur is in retirement and his sister has been sent out of the city until the matter blows over. Every effort has been made to keep the affair secret and no report has been made to the police. It is not likely there will be any prosecution.
